Maximum Leakage Defense™ for men

ABSORBENCY:
9.5 oz/280 mL

Tranquility Male Guards provide Maximum Leakage Defense for men with light to moderate incontinence. The soft, absorbent core draws fluid into the product, minimizing odor and protecting sensitive skin from rash and breakdown. Active side elastics form a cup shape to create a barrier against leakage, while comfortably moving with the body. Clothlike, moisture-proof backing and adhesive strip allow the guard to be securely worn in snug-fitting underwear. No uncomfortable sliding, awkward adjusting or leaks.
