NEW LOOK!

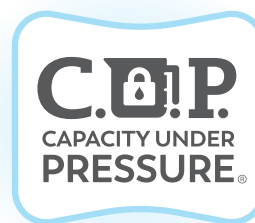

Our commitment to provide Real Life Protection means that Tranquility products absorb and contain their stated fluid capacity, no matter how much pressure is applied to the product. Whether you're sleeping, sitting or on-the-move, you can rely on our clinically proven design to protect you, so you can live freely and confidently with fewer worries.

THE TRANQUILITY DIFFERENCE

We hold cups, not drops.

We get it, using drops to show absorbency can be confusing. Tranquility values transparency. This is why we state our product's full retention capacity on every package, in cups.

No more misleading raindrops. No more second-guessing how much each product can hold. We make it easy for you to understand which product you need and feel confident in the product you choose.

We measure our products using Capacity Under Pressure, a proprietary test method that measures the product's retention capacity (the amount of fluid absorbed by the product that cannot be forced out with pressure), providing a more accurate representation of the product's absorbency under daily use.

Incontinence Product Guide

The journey to managing incontinence is based on individual needs. The first step is understanding the type and severity of incontinence a person is experiencing. This helps determine which product category, size and absorbency level is right for them.

INCONTINENCE TYPES

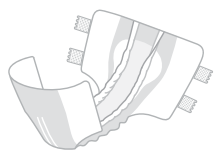

PRODUCT CATEGORIES

Pads, Liners and Guards are absorbent pads designed for light to moderate incontinence. An adhesive strip holds the pad securely in regular underwear to provide discreet protection.

Protective Underwear are pull-on products that fit like regular underwear. The soft, elastic waistband provides a discreet and comfortable fit. Protective underwear is for moderate to maximum incontinence protection.

Briefs are tab-style products that provide the highest level of protection, designed to contain both urine and bowel. Available in either a poly (plastic) backsheet or a clothlike backsheet for added comfort and breathability.

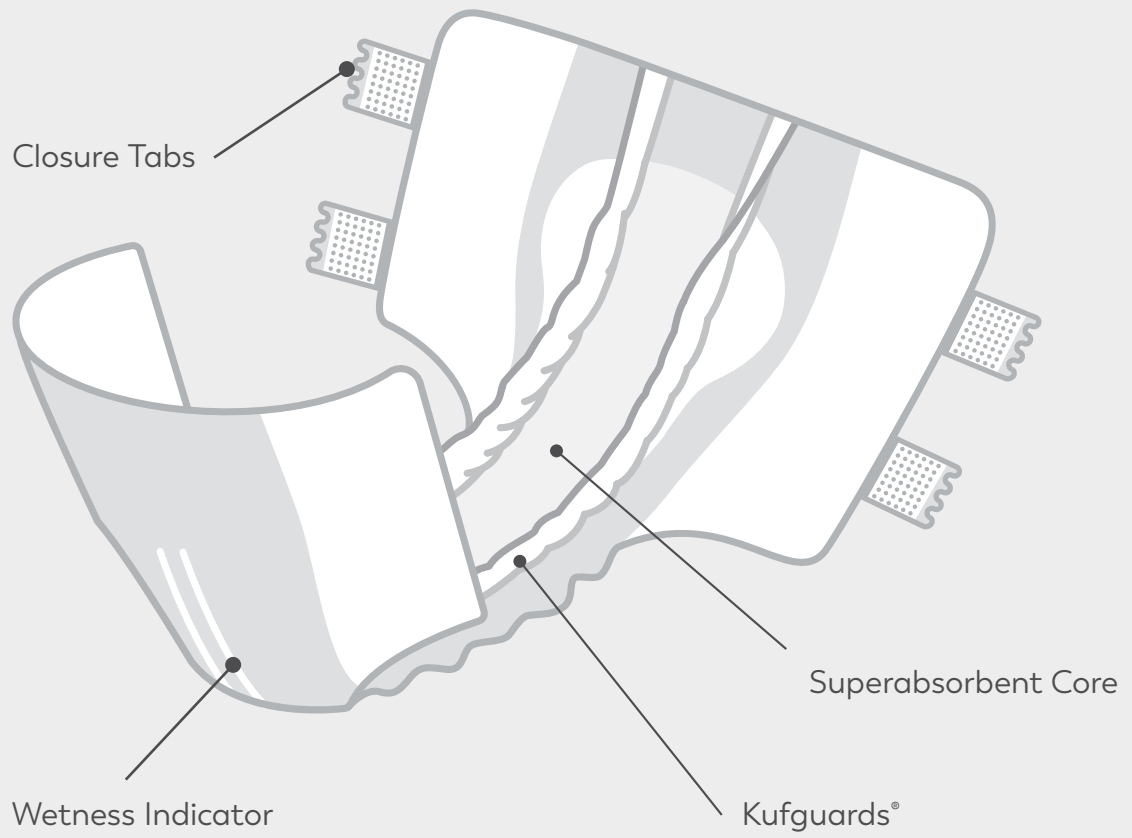

Booster Pads are flow-through pads designed to add absorbent capacity to a primary incontinence product. The flexible design allows for personalized positioning to add protection when and where it is needed – ideal for pairing with protective underwear or brief-style products.

Underpads provide an additional layer of protection to safeguard surfaces, such as bedding, furniture and wheelchairs, from heavy leakage and odor.

Disposable Swimwear is typically worn under a bathing suit and primarily intended for discreet bowel containment. For best performance, look for products designed for minimal swelling that will not break apart in water.

Boosters

What is a Booster Pad?

Booster pads provide extra protection.

They have a flow-through design allowing them to absorb initial fluid before passing additional moisture into a primary incontinence product. Booster pads should always be placed inside another disposable incontinence product that has a moisture-proof backing.

Do not use with regular underwear.

Booster pads can be folded and even doubled for added protection, but should never be cut.

Did You Know?

Booster pad placement is important. The pads can be placed in targeted areas where additional absorption is needed.

Host Garment – The pad's adhesive side should face out, away from the body. Make sure the pad is fully contained within the host incontinence product; no part should extend beyond the edge of the garment's absorptive pad area.

For Women – Place the pad more toward the bottom.

For Men – Place the pad more toward the front.

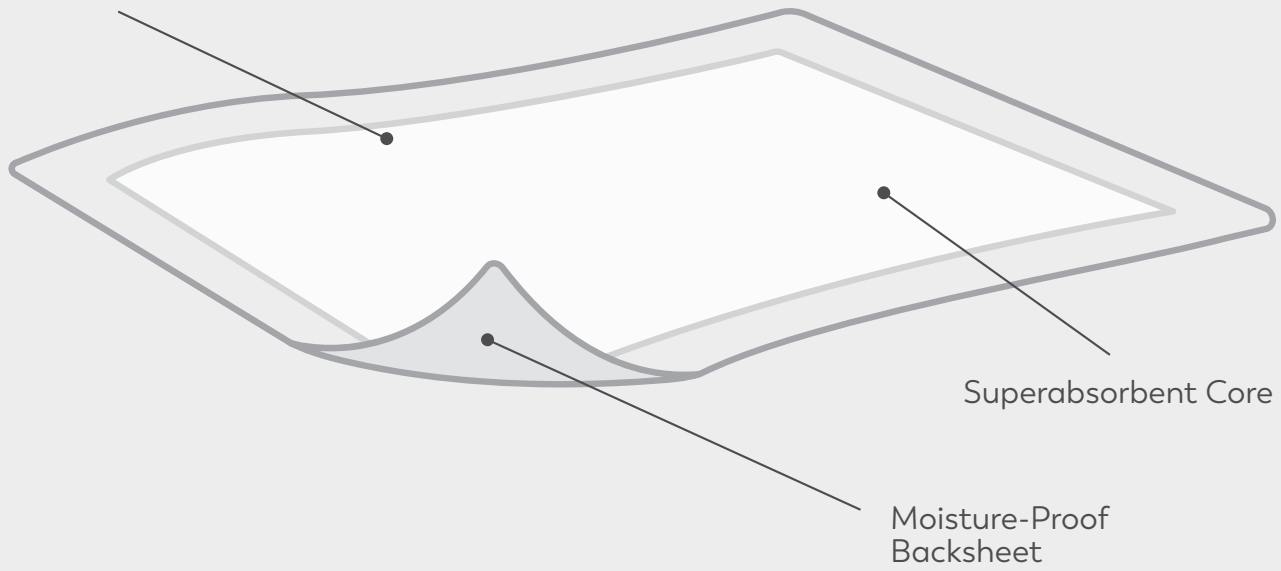

Booster pads can be folded and even doubled for added protection, but should never be cut.

Did You Know?

Underpads are typically used to protect mattresses and furniture from urine damage and reduce linen laundry. They also can protect other surfaces, including wheelchairs, vehicle seats and the floor beneath a portable or bedside toilet.

In fact, they have many uses – to temporarily absorb light leakage of kitchen pipes and refrigerator drips, soak up car oil or other spills in the garage, or as a protective cover for baby diaper changes when using a public changing station.

“

I ordered Tranquility Swimmates for my son, who still needs swim diapers but has outgrown the baby brands. I was very impressed by the quality and fit. I love that they have extended sizes!”

MOM AND CAREGIVER

“

“ Since I was in a car accident at age 18, I've been wearing diapers 24/7 for urinary leakage. When I found Tranquility ATN (All-Through-the-Night) Briefs, it was instant love. ATNs are comfortable and hold quite a bit of fluid.”
